

SWISS FREESKI TOUR – CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

- The closing date for registering is as per the announcement.
- Entry fee and ticket prices are as per the respective Basic Info Sheets. These can be downloaded via the registration tool.
- The number of competitors is limited. Early registration via the on-line tool is recommended.
- The online registration and payment is CHF 10.00 cheaper than the registration or payment on site.
- Entry fees or ticket charges prepaid on line will be refunded in the case of illness or injury on production of a medical certificate.
- Competitors are responsible for arranging their own insurance cover.
- The wearing of helmets is compulsory.
- The wearing of protective gear (back protection) is recommended.
- Skis and bindings must be in good working order and correctly adjusted.
- By registering, competitors who are still minors declare that their parents or legal guardians are aware of their participation in the Swiss Freeski Tour.
- By registering, every competitor declares automatically that he/she agrees to the applicable competition rules.
- The exact timetable of the contest is published on each competition day. By registering, competitors confirm that any visual material (photographs / video or sound recordings) – that are taken or made of them during the Swiss Freeski Open – may be used again, free of charge, in the context of promoting freeskiing.
- In case a competition has to be cancelled, the already paid starting-fees will be refunded as following:
 - Cancellation >24h prior to the competition: starting-fee will be 100% refunded.
 - Cancellation <24h prior to the competition: substitute-event or starting-fee will be 50% refunded.
 - In case a competition has to be cancelled skipasses will be refunded until a defined time.Discounted skipasses are not permitted to be re-sold or given away under any circumstances.