

SWISS
Snowboard
TOUR

SWISS
Freeski
TOUR

Conditions of participation
Swiss Freeski Tour &
Swiss Snowboard Tour
Season 2023/24

Conditions of participation

- ▷ The registration fee, ticket prices, and registration deadline are defined in the respective event information. This can be downloaded from the registration tool.
- ▷ The number of participants is limited, it is recommended to register early through the online tool.
- ▷ No registrations on site - registration and payment must be done online.
- ▷ Prepaid registration or ticket fees paid online will be refunded in case of illness or injury, upon presentation of a medical certificate.
- ▷ Insurance is the responsibility of the participants.
- ▷ Wearing a helmet is mandatory.
- ▷ Wearing protectors (back protection) is recommended.
- ▷ The equipment of the participants must be functional and properly adjusted
- ▷ By registering, participants who are not of legal age commit to ensuring that their parents or legal guardians are aware of their participation in the tour.
- ▷ By registering, each participant automatically agrees to comply with the applicable competition regulations.
- ▷ The exact schedule of the contest will be published on the competition day.
- ▷ By registering, participants confirm that any visual material (photos/videos) taken of them during the Swiss Freeski & Swiss Snowboard Tour may be used free of charge for promotional purposes of the competition series.
- ▷ In case of cancellation, the already paid registration fees will be refunded as follows:
 - Cancellation >48h* before the competition: Registration fee will be fully refunded.
 - Cancellation <48h* before the competition: Registration fee will not be refunded.
- *Definition of timing: 09:00 on the day before the competition day.
- ▷ In case of competition cancellation, lift tickets (if not used) can be returned until a defined time. Discounted tickets cannot be transferred or resold under any circumstances.